

Year

1. Search for and planned mating of good quality Breed
2. Acquisition, rearing and selection of candidate sires and recruitment of candidate sires
3. Controlled mating for production of test daughters
4. Production rearing of test daughters
5. Servicing of daughters
6. Lactation performance test and type research of daughters
7. Compilation of test results Aggregation, analysis and selection
8. Start of provision of proven bulls

Points

- Securing of candidate sires
- Implementation of controlled mating based on plan (random mating)
- Formulation of nationwide controlled mating plans (Even distribution)
- Maintenance and test participation of daughter
- Implementation of the test
- Calculation of evaluation results (By National livestock Breeding Center by using Animal Model BLUP)